Outline

- China's Intentions toward Taiwan
- PLA's Military Capabilities and Buildup
- PLA's Tactics of the Invasion toward Taiwan
- Taiwan's Response and Military Strategy
- Taiwan-Japan Military Cooperation

Intention 1 : China's sovereignty and territorial integrity

- Anti-Secession Law Article 8, 2005
- In the event that the "Taiwan independence" secessionist forces should act under any name or by any means to cause the fact of Taiwan's secession from China, or that major incidents entailing Taiwan's secession from China should occur, or that possibilities for a peaceful reunification should be completely exhausted,
- the state shall employ non-peaceful means and other necessary measures to protect China's sovereignty and territorial integrity.

Xi Jinping's Speech at the 40th Anniversary of Issuing Message to Compatriots in Taiwan, 2019,1,2

- Since 1949, the Communist Party of China (CPC), the Chinese government and the Chinese people have always unwaveringly taken resolving the Taiwan issue to realize China's complete reunification as a historic task.
- The historical and legal facts, that Taiwan is part of China and the two sides across Taiwan Straits belong to one and the same China, can never be altered by anyone or any force.

“We make no promise to renounce the use of force and reserve the option of taking all necessary means(toward Taiwan).”

Xi Jinping

Intention 2 : Inside out

- China's internal power struggle is fierce, and it is necessary to resolve the core interests issue, to attain the new historical mission of the PLA, and to transfer China internal disputes.

The 2017 China India border standoff or Doklam standoff refers to the military border standoff between the Indian Armed Forces and the PLA of China over Chinese construction of a road in Doklam near a tri-junction border area.

After this event, Joint Chief of Staff, Gen. Fan Fonghui step down.

Intention 3 : Limited Action to Attain the Political End

- To deter or force Taiwan to accept one China political framework “Taiwan option of One State Two System” with limited military action.
- Two Hands Strategy.

Some Ideas of Taiwan-Japan Military Cooperation

- Exchange intelligence between TMND and JSDF, initially via US
- Hold regular operation meeting or dialogue among Taiwan-Japan active duty officers
- Joint-develop dual-use technologies, such as UUV
- Exchange the combat concept of against PLA's invasion
- Conduct joint exercise of HADR and defense exercise under the guideline of US IPCOM
- Establish the hotline between Taiwan-Japan for PLA's activities crossed the first island chain
- Joint Deploy the anti-ship missile to cover the critical channel cross the first island chain
